

For Immediate Release

Team Clean Honored for its Work at Pennsylvania Convention Center during International Housekeepers Week Appreciation Ceremony

Philadelphia, Pennsylvania – September 17, 2010 – Over 80 employees of Team Clean, Philadelphia’s largest independent janitorial services company, were honored for their work at the Pennsylvania Convention Center in a ceremony on Thursday, September 16th marking International Housekeepers Week.

Team Clean provided a lunch reception at the Pennsylvania Convention Center for their employees on-site, and were represented by the company’s founder and President, Donna Allie (fourth from left, front row), Chief Executive Officer David Rivers (front row, second from right) and Charles Gordy (back row, first from left). Representatives from the Pennsylvania Convention Center Authority were also on hand to honor the Team Clean employees for their hard work.

Also during the reception, Team Clean employee Alfredo Zaraz was honored as Team Clean’s employee of the month, for his skill and ability to do set-ups at the Pennsylvania Convention Center, as well as his positive attitude in the workplace.

Team Clean is a leading provider of janitorial services in the Philadelphia region. The company serves a variety of clients in government, education, industry, professional offices, sports and entertainment venues and events. Active in the Philadelphia community with a variety of social and economic programs, Team Clean is recognized as the Philadelphia region’s largest minority-owned and woman-owned business, and was recently selected to the Inc. 5000 list of America’s fastest growing companies. Additional information is available at <http://www.team-clean.com>.

Media Contact: Jim DeLorenzo, 215-564-1122, jim@jhdenterprises.com